DROWNED IN HELL GATE. Five Men in a Boat Upset-One Could Not Swim.

STREET NO......

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, June 21.—Struggling desperately in the swift rushing waters of Little Hell Gate, between Ward's and Randall's Island, five men who had left this city in a round-bottom rowboat fought for their lives late in the afternoon when their little craft was sunk. Four of them were good swimmers and they made herole efforts to save a fifth companion, who could not swim. Each took turns in trying to keep him above water, but their strength failed them and they were finally compelled to let go and water him drown. Then, after a desperate swim the others managed to get to Ward's Island.

The five men were Neil Relliy, Michael Touhey, Thomas Walsh, Joseph Guersing and Herman Wilkins.

WOULD BE A GOOD AMERICAN.

New York Lad Resists Attempt to Send Him to Scotland. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, June 21.—Mr. Joba Miller of Greenpoint brought his il year-eld hephew, Robert, before Surrogate Church in Brooklyn. The boy has $5,000 in his own right. The uncle wishes to send him to live with relatives in Scotland.

"I don't want to go to Europe, Judge," said the boy. 'I want to be an American citizen when I grow up. If you send me to Scotland I won't stay there. I'll work hard to get money enough to pay my fare back to this country, and I'll come on the first steamer."

The Surrogate was pleased with the boy's spirit, and said he would try to arrange: for the boy to stay here and have another guardian appointed.
